

Dear Member,

First, a gentle reminder that the Hall and MCR will close for the long vacation from Friday 28 July; re-opening on Monday 4 September.

But fear not - we are still here for you: the Treasury Office and Reception will stay open throughout August, although at the slightly altered opening times from 9 am to 5 pm (Monday to Friday). The Library will also be open - please see below for summer opening hours and its most interesting recent acquisitions.

In other news:

- a one-bedroom flat at the Inn is available to rent (upon application - you have to be quick!)
- you will also have to be quick to take advantage of early bird rates for conferences that may be of interest
- a Quiz night at the Inn offers the perfect start into Michaelmas term
- resources for youth justice causes are available from the ICCA
- there will be road closures around the Inn on the weekend of 29/30 July

We hope that you will have at least some days of rest in the next few weeks and will write again in the second half of August.

Living at the Inn - apply by 11 August

A recently refurbished one-bedroom flat (474 sq ft; on the second floor of 20 Old Buildings) is currently available on an Assured Shorthold Tenancy for 4 years.

Youth Justice Advocacy

The Inns of Court College of Advocacy (ICCA) is working closely with the BSB, the Criminal Bar Association (CBA), Just for Kids Law and the Youth Justice Legal Centre (YJLC) to make sure that there are valuable and practical resources available for practitioners as they prepare for youth justice cases.

ICCA has produced a number of guides dealing with some of the most complex areas of practice in youth justice and these can be found on their website: www.icca.ac.uk/youth-justice-advocacy

13 October - Justice Human Rights Law Conference

The programme will focus on the challenges facing practitioners and the wider public policy debate on human rights law in the UK.

Keynote Speaker: The Rt. Hon. Lady Justice Hallett

Early bird rates available until 11 September.

All income from the event will directly support the work of JUSTICE.
