EASTER & TRINITY TERMS 2019

THE CHAPEL: WHAT IS IT FOR?

Why do we have a Chapel in the Inn? I suggest for at least these three reasons:

First because everyone needs to consider even if they cannot answer, the great questions of life, who are we, why are we here, to whom if anyone are we responsible, and so on. What is done in the Chapel may help us to think about these questions, and to point us at least in the direction of answers.

Secondly because the very existence of such a place reminds us, whether or not we believe in God, that there is more to life than work, and more to work than making a living; there is in fact a spiritual (or at least a non-material) dimension to our existence.

Thirdly because we are a community and the Chapel is a worthy place for the prayer and praise of the community to be offered to Almighty God.

Why should the Chapel be a place of Anglican worship, rather than multi-denominational or multi-faith? In what may be called "formal" worship (and I do not mean anything derogatory by that term) it is necessary to use some form or other. The Church of England's form is the one for which the Chapel was built and intended. However, much of what we do is not specifically Anglican, for instance our Bible Readings and Carol Services; and my hope is that all our services, formal and informal, may be found helpful and positive by any believer in God and by any seeker after truth.

While the Chapel is particularly for those who live and work in the Inn, whether as judges, barristers, students, clerks, employees or tenants, it is also open to the public and we are always glad to welcome anyone of whatever faith or none.

The Chapel is open from Monday to Friday, 9 am to 5 pm. Some find it a convenient place for quiet meditation, and the high pews, though they have disadvantages, are well suited to those who wish to pray undisturbed.

Lincoln's Inn Chapel follows the traditional services of Matins and Eucharist according to the Book of Common Prayer. Orders of Service can be followed on the laminated cards and on page 1 (Matins) and page 236 (Eucharist) of the Book of Common Prayer. The page number of the psalm is noted on the music list. In Eastertide we sing the Easter Anthems in place of the Venite. They can be found on page 128 of the Prayer Book.

Every Sunday after the Service, all members of the congregation are invited to join the Masters of the Bench and Members of the Inn for a brief social gathering in the Crypt of the Old Hall.

Dates and times of all Chapel events in the Chapel in the Hilary Term are set out in the Chapel Calendar or will appear in the Lent Leaflet later in term: both may be found at the back of the Chapel. Please take one.

The Easter Anthems

Christus vincit! Christus regnat! Christus imperat!
Christ conquers! Christ reigns! Christ commands!

Christ our passover has been sacrificed for us:
So let us celebrate the feast,
Not with the old leaven of corruption and wickedness:
But with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
Christ once raised from the dead dies no more:
Death has no more dominion over him.
In dying he died to sin once for all:
In living he lives to God.
See yourselves therefore as dead to sin:
And alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord.
Christ has been raised from the dead:
The first fruits of those who sleep.
For as by man came death:
By man has come also the resurrection of the dead;
For as in Adam all die:
Even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

1 Corinthians 5.7b, 8 Romans 6.9–11, 1 Corinthians 15.20–22

The Lord is my shepherd

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear
no evil:
For thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Psalm 23

Rise up, my love, my fair one

Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away;
For lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone;
The flowers appear upon the earth;
The time of the singing of birds is come;
Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

Song of Songs 2.10-13

Ubi caritas

Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est.
Congregavit nos in unum Christi amor.
Exsulemus et in ipso jucundemur.
Timeamus et amemus Deum vivum, et ex corde diligamus nos sincero.
Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est. Amen.

*Where charity and love are, God is there.
The love of Christ has united us.
Let us rejoice and be glad in him.
Let us fear and love the living God and adore him from a sincere heart.
Where charity and love are, God is there. Amen.*

I saw the Lord

I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple. Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he cover'd his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly. And one cried unto another, Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory. And the posts of the door mov'd at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

O Trinity! O Unity!
Be present as we worship thee,
And with the songs that angels sing
Unite the hymns of praise we bring.

Isaiah 6.1-4

A Hymn for St Cecilia

Sing for the morning's joy, Cecilia, sing,
in words of youth and phrases of the Spring,
walk the bright colonnades by fountains' spray,
and sing as sunlight fills the waking day;
till angels, voyaging in upper air,
pause on a wing and gather the clear sound
into celestial joy, wound and unwound,
a silver chain, or golden as your hair.
Sing for your loves of heaven and of earth,
in words of music, and each word a truth;
marriage of heart and longings that aspire,
a bond of roses, and a ring of fire.
Your summertime grows short and fades away,
terror must gather to a martyr's death;
but never tremble, the last indrawn breath
remembers music as an echo may.

Through the cold aftermath of centuries,
Cecilia's music dances in the skies;
lend us a fragment of the immortal air,
that with your choiring angels we may share,
a word to light us thro' time-fettered night,
water of life, or rose of paradise,
so from the earth another song shall rise
to meet your own in heaven's long delight.

Ursula Vaughan Williams (1911-2007)
