Jonathan Crow Esq QC

Preacher

The Venerable Sheila Watson

Michaelmas A New Academic Year

Welcome to the Chapel and, in this Michaelmas Term, a special welcome to new student, pupil and staff members or residents.

Some find the Chapel a quiet space for reflection; for others the Undercroft and the stairway provide shelter; while others follow a more traditional path for weddings or christenings. Every Sunday in term there is a service at 11.30am – with coffee beforehand and a drink afterwards. All welcome!

Music is a highlight: our professional choir provide the highest quality and a wide repertoire. The Royal Academy of Music perform at occasional lunchtime concerts.

Each term has special events – the Inns of Court Yeomanry and their band join us on Remembrance Sunday, November 10th; and later in the month the Treasurer will be in conversation with Alexander McLean, one of our barristers, who founded African Prisons Project. In December, the Bishop of London, Dame Sarah Mullaly, will preach and term finishes with our traditional Carol Services. Look out for these and more.

Our building is at the historic heart of the Inn. It is a significant renaissance Chapel with some rare Flemish stained glass as well as family memories in the Treasurers' shields.

In the vestibule is a portrait of John Donne, the 17th century poet, a student and then the Preacher of Lincoln's Inn. His well-known lines, 'never send to know for whom the bell tolls: it tolls for thee', were inspired by his Christian faith and by the bell of the old chapel. The bell still tolls today – for services and to mark the death of a Bencher. Each time it reminds us of Donne's words: 'No man is an island entire of itself; every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main. any man's death diminishes me.' It's the African insight, Ubuntu, that my life is inextricably bound up with yours - 'I am, because we are'.
