LENT

Welcome to Chapel for Lent and this second half of Hilary Term. The nature of our dispersed community means that with the new variant of the virus and the early lockdown, Chapel has moved online for this term.

Lent is traditionally a time of penitence, looking at where we have missed the mark in the way we live our lives; and a time of prayer, in preparation for Easter. It calls for an honest look at ourselves and a turning outwards to others. It's a time for simplicity not for the spiritual high ground.

To support one another in this, we are gathering our favourite prayers to share. Do let us have a copy of your favourite prayer and, if you would like, tell us what makes it one you return to and delight in.

Our Lenten Chapel giving is for XLP a charity for young people. It is part of the Bishop of London's Appeal, focussing on helping young people and increasing awareness of youth violence. XLP is a charity working with young people in deprived inner city estates struggling daily with high levels of criminality, gang activity and anti-social behaviour. It is also known to us through Paul Lambert's, our Front of House Manager's, work as a volunteer. Give via <https://www.xlp.org.uk/donate.html> - quoting the reference 'Lincoln's Inn' in the comment box.

Do join us when the community gathers via zoom as well as making use of the video offerings. Music as always plays a special part in our worship. Compline sung by the Choir is available online as a meditative finish to the day. As is an organ recital by our Associate Organist William Whitehead. Look out for our special events which include the Bishop of St Edmundsbury and Ipswich on February 28th and then on March 21st our annual celebration of John Donne, the 17th century poet, student and then the Preacher of Lincoln's Inn, when Dr Katrin Ettenhuber of Pembroke College Cambridge will address us.

VIDEOS AT CHAPEL ONLINE

COMPLINE : Compline sung by the Choir is available online as a meditative finish to the days of Lent.

ORGAN RECITAL:

William Whitehead, Associate Organist writes: I'm pleased to be able to offer a lockdown moment musical from the organ of Lincoln's Inn (partly, I'll admit, to keep my fingers something approaching match fit...). In this twenty minute selection of organ music I'll play various Chorale Preludes, including Bach's An Wasserflüssen Babylon (Psalm 137) and the American composer Nico Muhly's Weltlich Ehr und zeitlich Gut, and I will conclude with Maurice Duruflé's pinnacle of the French Toccata tradition, the Toccata from the Suite, Op.5. Available in mid-March.

WIGS and MITRES LENT SERMON
: BISHOP of St EDMUNDSBURY
AND IPSWICH: the week of 28th
February.

JOHN DONNE SERVICE with Dr
Katrin Ettenhuber: the week of 21st
March.

Videos can be accessed via the website
(<https://www.lincolnsinn.org.uk/about-us/chapel/>) or by joining the Chapel Online email list (contact chapelclerk@lincolnsinn.org.uk).
