Michaelmas A New Legal Year –

Welcome to the Chapel - here to serve the whole community of the Inn, members, staff, visitors, and all those who live and work here. As we re-open after the summer break, a special welcome to new students, pupils, staff members or residents. Our aim is to provide quiet amidst the clamour; music for the soul; stimulation for the intellect; support under pressure. Do join in events listed in this Calendar or contact us if we can assist in any way.

Our building, at the historic heart of the Inn, is a significant renaissance Chapel. In the vestibule is a portrait of John Donne, the 17th century poet, a student and former Preacher of Lincoln's Inn. His well-known lines, 'never send to know for whom the bell tolls: it tolls for thee', were inspired by the bell of the old chapel. The bell still tolls today – for services and to mark the death of a Bencher. Each time it reminds us of Donne's words: 'No man is an island entire of itself; every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main. any man's death diminishes me.' It's the African insight, Ubuntu, that my life is inextricably bound up with yours - 'I am, because we are'. It's a reminder of how much we need each other and need to look out for each other today.

As term begins, after disruptions in the Inn's life not seen since Donne's time and the plagues of the seventeenth century, we are glad to plan our usual Sunday 11.30am Choral Services. Look out for the special events for Wigs and Mitres, Remembrance, and the Carol Services, as well as the dedication of the new Chapel furniture. Chapel online will be available as soon as the fibre and camera installation is complete.
