When should you apply for a Scholarship?

We recommend applying for a scholarship one academic year in advance from when you will begin your studies. Because the Inns of Court only have one scholarship application window a year, it can be difficult to know when you should apply if your start date is not in September. The table below outlines when you should apply for a scholarship depending on your start date.

Please note, if you are doing a part-time course, you can apply for a scholarship for your second year in the next consecutive application window.

Bar Course Start Date	When to Apply
September 2021	September 2020
January- March 2022	September 2020
July 2022	September 2021
