Overview:

The UK Supreme Court is hosting a webinar on career pathways to becoming a Justice. The event aims to provide early- and mid-career legal professionals with an opportunity to learn more about the appointment process and what it takes to become a well-qualified candidate, enabling aspiring future Justices to kick-start long-term career planning.

Chaired by the Supreme Court's Chief Executive, Vicky Fox, speakers will:

- Provide an overview of the eligibility requirements and appointment criteria and an understanding of the necessary skills and experience to become a Supreme Court Justice.
- Outline career pathways to the Court and offer first-hand insights into their journey to becoming a Justice.
- Provide advice on long-term career planning and development for future applicants.

Discussions will be followed by a Q&A Session.

Speakers:

The Right Hon. Lord
Reed of Allermuir

President of the
Supreme Court

Liz Burnley CBE

Lay Member of the Judicial Appointments
Board for Scotland

The Right Hon. Lady
Rose of Colmworth

Justice of the Supreme Court

Vicky Fox

Chief Executive of the Supreme Court

Registration:

Registration is free of charge and open to all those interested in learning more on career pathways to becoming a Supreme Court Justice. The Court is committed to supporting increased diversity within the judiciary and we particularly welcome participants from groups that are currently underrepresented within the judiciary.
