"Peter and the team at Silver Levene have been an invaluable asset to me in developing my practice as a Barrister and also assisting my long-term financial planning. They have consistently put the achievement of my financial objectives at the heart of their service to me, which has invariably been of an excellent standard."

THOMAS O'DONOHUE.

"I moved to Silver Levene from my previous accountants several years ago. In all my dealings with them I have found Mason and the team to be consistently helpful, efficient and thoroughly professional. They take time to see me in person when necessary, and leave no stone unturned. On several occasions, such as relating to VAT or when applying for a mortgage, I have needed them to address urgent, detailed queries. They have done so quickly and with the minimum of fuss. In short, I cannot recommend them highly enough."

RICHARD HUTCHINGS.
